

ST. VINCENT COLLEGE OF CABUYAO, INC.

GENERAL OBJECTIVES

- To impart, cultivate and promote academic discipline, celebrate cultural and religious diversity, as well as produce broad-based, creative, entrepreneurial, and patriotic leaders for the knowledge-based global economy.
- To commit to an interactive, participative and technologically enabled learning environment.
- To provide a rewarding and challenging environment for faculty, staff and students to foster and sustain a passion for excellence.
- To establish and develop an atmosphere of intellectual stimulation and managed academic freedom that will enhance the capacity and potential of the students for them to excel in their fields of expertise and areas of interest.
- To provide technologically-supported unique opportunities that shall contribute to the optimization of potentials and capacities of every learner.
- To contribute to the development of responsible and patriotic citizens who value freedom, and has the capacity to overcome obstacles and solve problems for the common and general welfare of humanity.

ST. VINCENT COLLEGE OF CABUYAO, INC.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES

- To offer comprehensive, effective, and relevant educational programs.
- To adopt the ladder-type of education* and ensure its regular enhancement towards the overall delivery of excellent educational services.
- To promote the progressive and continuous development of deserving academic and non-academic personnel for leadership roles.

every learning stage is a building block to producing industry-ready and globally-competitive Vincentian*

ST. VINCENT COLLEGE OF CABUYAO, INC.

TERTIARY EDUCATION OBJECTIVES

St. Vincent College of Cabuyao aims to produce graduates who are:

- holistically developed and socio-culturally aware;
- professionally competent, imbued with patriotic values which aims to develop the Filipino as a dynamic human being in the broad spectrum of educational, professional and personal goals;
- spiritually impelled by a sense of mission bound by a strong and living faith dictated by his chosen Faith to serve and transform the society;
- socially empowered yet responsible, possessing leadership qualities required in achieving professional and personal successes;
- committed citizens aware of their roles, capable of participating actively in the task of nation building to attain the best quality of life for themselves and their countrymen;
- able to act as effective agents towards the building of a more just and humane world.